

To help you stay organized and follow up with potential employers/recruiters, here's a post-event checklist with some action items to complete:

Review the notes you made on your Contact List Form and follow up on any outstanding questions or leads.

Email or message any recruiters you spoke with to thank them for their time and express your interest in their organization.

Update your resume and LinkedIn profile based on any feedback or insights you received during the event.

Connect with any new contacts you made during the event on LinkedIn or other platforms.

Review our Participant Event Guide for contact information of recruiters or organizations that you did not have a chance to speak with.

Research any organizations you didn't have a chance to speak with during the event, and consider reaching out to their recruiters to learn more.

Take some time to reflect on what you learned during the event and how it can inform your career goals and job search strategy.

Attend our other upcoming virtual career fair events to continue networking and exploring job opportunities in the nursing field.

Connect with NurseRecruit on Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn to stay updated on upcoming events and job opportunities.

Complete the Post-Event Attendee Survey to provide us with feedback for the virtual career fair that you attended.

We hope you found the event informative and valuable, and wish you the best of luck in your nursing career!
